THE COLLEGE OF ARTS & HUMANITIES PRESENTS

2011-2012
ARHU DEAN’S
LECTURE SERIES

A Conversation with Angela Davis

Author, Educator, Activist
Wed., April 18, 2012 @ 7:00 p.m.
Colony Ballroom, Adele H. Stamp Student Union
Followed by audience Q&A

Join the College of Arts and Humanities for a conversation with Angela Davis, one of the most influential, controversial, and fearless activists and public intellectuals in the United States.

FREE TICKETS are required and can be picked up at the Stamp Student Union Ticket Office (next to Hoff Theater) starting Monday, April 9, between the hours of noon and 10 p.m. while supplies last.

In collaboration with Adele H. Stamp Student Union,
ADVANCE, the Departments of American Studies, Philosophy, and Women’s Studies, and the Office of the Chief Diversity Officer.

All events are free and open to the public
WWW.BEWORLDWISE.UMD.EDU