

Department of Women's Studies University of Maryland College Park

Undergraduate Awards to Participate in the National Women's Studies Association Conference San Juan, Puerto Rico, November 2014

The Department of Women's Studies will support the participation of 2 undergraduate students in the 2014 National Women's Studies Association Conference in San Juan, Puerto Rico, November 13-16. The conference will attract women's studies scholars and students from across the country presenting workshops and panels on a wide range of issues addressing the conference theme of "Feminist Transgressions."

The award will cover transportation, hotel, conference registration, and food.

Who is eligible to apply: any University of Maryland College Park undergraduate student in good standing who has successfully completed 12 credits of WMST courses.

To apply, students should submit:

- resume
- list of WMST courses completed
- name and email address of one faculty recommender
- a 250-500 word statement of why you would like to attend the NWSA conference

Applications should be submitted via email to Dr. JV Sapinoso – sapinoso@umd.edu – no later than 4:00 p.m. Friday, September 26.

Successful applicants will be informed by October 10.

To learn more about the National Women's Studies Association and the annual conference, visit <http://www.nwsa.org/>

For questions about the award or the application procedure, please contact Dr. Elsa Barkley Brown, Director of Undergraduate Studies, Women's Studies Department and Program, via email – barkleyb@umd.edu