*WMST/LGBT Undergraduate E-News
Spring 2016, Issue #15 February 12, 2016*

Greetings!

We hope everyone is staying warm in this chilly weather! If you're looking for fun, interesting, and indoor events this Friday and Saturday, check out "Weekend Plans" for our suggestions.

Inside this issue you'll find a number of upcoming deadlines for honors societies, summer courses abroad, the Women's Studies Honors Program, and internship opportunities. Please especially note the opportunity for funding from the Department to attend the annual Duke University Feminist Theory Workshop. Applications are due today! Today is also the last day to apply to join the University of Maryland's chapter of Triota (Women's Studies) Honor Society.

We included a list of next week's workshops and panels that are part of "Black History Month 2016: Face[t]s of Black." A number of the events require an RSVP.

Want to learn about summer internship opportunities? Curious about the Women's Studies Honors Program and research opportunities with WMST faculty? Miss chatting with JV? Come to Woods Hall for all of your advising needs! Putting the Spotlight on Advising this issue, we invite you to think about the range of advising resources available to you in the Women's Studies Department.

And as always, be sure to look through all of the upcoming Career Center events, Careers4Terps opportunities, and additional internships at the "Career Corner."

11th Hour Poetry Slam Hosted by 2Deep the Poetess

February 12th from 11:00pm to 1am

This Friday Busboys and Poetry hosts their 11th Hour Poetry Slam, an opportunity for poetry lovers to enjoy the competitive art of late-night performance poetry! Enjoy two rounds of high intensity poetry, with the audience choosing a winner.

The Poetry Slam is hosted by "2Deep" The Poetess, a poet who has performed at Ottawa University (Canada), Cornell University, and opened for the late Gill Scott-Heron in 2009. She was a member of Busboys and Poets' 2009 Slam Team, Word War II Champion, and served as the Busboys and Poets' Slam Master. Currently, she's selling her book, Spoken Heard, and stays busy with her blog, 2DeepUncensored.

Location: 14& V, 2021 14th Street NW, Washington, DC 20009 $5 Cover. On the day of the event, tickets can be purchased online here starting at midnight and in the restaurant starting at 10:00 AM in the bookstore (cash only). No refunds. Ticket purchase limit of 4 per person. Tickets will be sold at the door if available. Guests must have their wristbands (tickets) on upon entering the event.

Monir, Reseeing Iran: Twentieth Annual Iranian Film Festival

February 13th at 2:00pm

Bahman Kiarostami's new documentary looks at Iranian artist Monir Shahroudy Farmanfarmaian, who pioneered new forms of geometric mirror work in the 1970s. With a career that has spanned more than half a century, she invented an artistic language informed by ancient Iranian craft tradition, as well as by modern American masters such as Barnett Newman and Frank Stella. After thirty years living and working in New York, she returned to Tehran. Monir introduces Farmanfarmaian at the age of ninety, at the peak of her career. Musical score by Hooshyar Khayam and the Kronos Quartet. (Bahman Kiarostami, 2015, DCP, subtitles, 54 minutes)

East Building Auditorium, National Gallery of Art, 4th and Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20565

Mark Your Calendars!

Feb. 1-May 22: Early Women of Architecture in Maryland

Researched and created by the Women in Architecture Committee of AIA Baltimore, this exhibition celebrates the women who contributed to Maryland architecture from the 1920s to the 1960s. The exhibit includes the work of activist architects whose commitment to social and racial justice led to work on issues such as public housing and community preservation during a turbulent time in American cities.

Feb. 25: Colloquium with Christina Sharpe

11am-1pm, Francis Scott Key Hall 2120

Can't attend Professor Sharpe's lecture on Wednesday, February 24 at 4:30pm? Or, just want MORE! This event follows Professor Sharpe's talk from the previous day and is an opportunity for students and faculty to gather in a more intimate and informal setting for more extended discussion of the issues raised in the lecture. We hope you'll join us to continue the conversation-all are welcome! Learn more here. Part of Queer Beyond Repair, the 14th Annual Lecture Series in LGBT Studies

Triota (Women's Studies) Honor Society

Apply by February 12th!

Membership is open to all UMD students, regardless of major, who have completed at least one Women's Studies or LGBT Studies course and have at least a 3.0 GPA in Women's Studies/LGBT Studies courses and a cumulative GPA of at least 2.7.

Access the application here or send an email to triotaumd@gmail.com to learn more about the Honor Society.

WMST/LGBT Travel Grants to Tenth Annual Feminist Theory Workshop at Duke University

Deadline: Feb. 12 at 4:00pm

The Department of Women's Studies will support the participation of up to three undergraduate students in the Tenth Annual Feminist Theory Workshop at Duke University, March 4-5, 2016. The workshop includes keynote addresses by Sonia E. Alvarez, Evelyn M. Hammonds, Ranjana Khanna and Griselda Pollock, as well as small seminars discussing further the issues raised by the speakers. It will attract scholars and students from across the country. Information about the workshop is available here.

The Department's award will cover the costs of transportation, hotel, and meals.

Any University of Maryland undergraduate who is pursuing a WMST major or certificate, Black Women's Studies minor, or LGBT certificate or minor is eligible to apply.

Interested students should submit one paragraph to Professor Barkley Brown via email - barkleyb@umd.edu -- by Friday, February 12, 2016 (no later than 4:00 p.m.) outlining why you would like to attend and how you would share the experience/knowledge with your peers and the wider Women's Studies/LGBT Studies community.

Lavender Leadership Honor Society

Application due: February 29, 2016

The Lavender Leadership Honor Society celebrates and develops leadership for LGBTQ+ inclusion and social justice. Regardless of the form your leadership has taken, we encourage you to apply for membership in this Society. Applications are due by the end of the day on Monday, February 29, 2016.

Spotlight: Advising

The time to sign up for summer and fall 2016 classes is just around the corner! Putting the Spotlight on Advising this issue, we invite you to think about the range of advising resources available to you in the Women's Studies Department.

1. Meet with Dr. JV Sapinosa, Undergraduate Advisor for WMST to:

- Keep in good contact with your advisor
- Identify which requirements you need to fulfill, and what courses are being offered (make sure you're on track)!
- See past course syllabi so that you can make a more informed decision about what classes you might want to take in the future
- Find scholarships, internships, and/or job opportunities
- Keep in touch! Schedule a meeting with him by going to <http://ter.ps/meetJV> or send him an update via email to sapinosa@umd.edu

2. The WMST/LGBT Faculty are Eager to Meet with You to:

- Get to know you better so that they can write strong letters of recommendation
- Know about your interests outside the classroom so that they think to nominate you for undergraduate awards and prizes
- Talk with you about interesting areas of research
- Help you brainstorm ideas for what to do after you leave UMD
- Help you think about applying to graduate school
- Work with you to find different resources on campus as you navigate the institution
- Find out what a really cool person you are.

3. Contact Dr. Barkley Brown, Director of Undergraduate Studies in the department to:

- Discuss the requirements of an internship, find a faculty adviser for the internship, and to get your internship learning contract approved

- Learn more about the Honors Program, its requirements, and the kind of project you might take up in the program
- Have a better sense of the criteria for awards, scholarships, and prizes or for help in applying for any
- Discuss concerns about a class or an instructor
- Make suggestions about courses, events, or activities you would like to see the Department sponsor
- Contact Professor Barkley Brown by email - barkleyb@umd.edu - or stop by her office hours, 9:30-11:30 Thursdays in 2101 Woods Hall

Academic Enrichment Grants for Women's Studies Majors

Department of Women's Studies

Women's Studies Majors are eligible to apply for Academic Enrichment Grants to fund research, participation in academic or leadership conferences and workshops, or other activities that will enhance your education in women's, gender, and/or sexuality studies. Application deadline is mid-March for projects during the February 2016 to August 2016 time period. Students submitting applications by March 23 will be notified by April 11 if their project will be funded.

To apply, send a 250-500 word statement about the project/conference/workshop/organizing meeting, etc. for which you are requesting funding and indicate how you see this relating to your work in Women's Studies. Also, submit a resume, budget, the name of one professor who can serve as a reference, and, if applicable, a list of any other sources from which you are requesting funding for this same project. If applying for an activity that occurred prior to the application deadline, please submit copies of receipts to accompany your budget.

Applications submitted after the scheduled October and March deadlines will be considered if there are any remaining Academic Enrichment funds for the semester.

For questions about these grants or assistance with developing your proposal, please talk with Professor Elsa Barkley Brown, Director of Undergraduate Studies. Professor Barkley Brown's spring 2016 office hours are 9:30-11:30 Thursdays in 2101 Woods Hall or feel free to email barkleyb@umd.edu

Apply to the Women's Studies Honors Program!

Deadline: March 1

The Department of Women's Studies Honors Program provides an opportunity for students within the University to pursue an academic interest in some aspect of women's, gender, and/or sexuality studies in greater depth than that allowed by formal classes. While the Honors Program puts emphasis on the development of habits of self-reliance, individual initiative, and critical analysis, students also have the experience of working one-on-one with a faculty mentor. The thesis project may result in a sustained piece of writing or a substantial creative or activist project.

Students are accepted into the honors program each semester. Ideally students should apply in the second semester of their sophomore year. Transfer students are welcome to apply.

Applications are accepted from students of any major who have completed three WMST and/or LGBT courses at the time of application and have at least a 3.25 overall GPA and a 3.25 GPA in the WMST/LGBT courses taken.

The Honors program consists of 12 credits, ideally taken across four semesters. Transfer students or students who are planning study abroad should speak to the Director of Undergraduate Studies about the possibility of completing the Honors program in three semesters. The four courses are: an upper-level course of choice taken with an Honors Option; the WMST or LGBT senior seminar taken with an Honors Option; and 6 credits of WMST Honors Thesis.

Students wishing to begin the Honors Program in Fall 2016 should apply by March 1, 2016. Students wishing to begin the Honors Program in Spring 2017 should apply by November 1, 2016.

To apply, submit:

- a transcript (unofficial is acceptable),
- a list of all LGBT and/or WMST courses completed,
- a list of any LGBT or WMST courses in which you are currently enrolled,
- the names and email addresses of two faculty who can evaluate your abilities and readiness to take on an independent project, at least one of whom has been your instructor in an LGBT or WMST course,
- a sample writing or creative project that you have completed for a course
- a brief (maximum 250 words) statement of why you are interested in the Honors Program;
- and, indicate when you expect to graduate.

Applications should be submitted to Professor Elsa Barkley Brown, Director of Undergraduate Studies. They may be submitted electronically to barkleyb@umd.edu or in hard copy to Professor Barkley Brown's mailbox in the Department of Women's Studies, 2101 Woods Hall.

If you have questions about the Honors Program, your application, the program's structure, possible Honors projects you might do, or other, you are encouraged to speak with Professor Barkley Brown and with other members of the LGBT/WMST faculty. For Spring 2016 Professor Barkley Brown's office hours are 9:30-11:30 Thursdays and by appointment in 2101 Woods Hall or email barkleyb@umd.edu.

Lambda Legal

Position: Fair Courts Project Undergraduate Intern

Location: National Headquarters, New York

Lambda Legal's Education and Public Affairs Department seeks a law student or exceptional undergraduate for Fall, Spring and Summer semester internships.

Lambda Legal is the nation's oldest and largest legal organization committed to achieving full equality for lesbians, gay men, bisexuals, transgender people and people with HIV through impact litigation, education and public policy work. Lambda Legal's law reform, policy and education work encompasses a wide range of areas, including federal and state constitutional law issues, discrimination in employment, benefits, housing, insurance, schools and other areas, harassment and violence, antigay ballot initiatives, access to healthcare and HIV-related treatments, child custody, visitation and adoption, the freedom to marry and sodomy law reform.

Responsibilities:

- The intern will assist primarily with Lambda Legal's Fair Courts Project.
- This internship will not offer any opportunity to be directly involved with any aspects of litigation.

Qualifications:

- Candidates should have a strong interest in Lambda Legal's work, and specifically in the Fair Courts Project.

- Candidates with experience related to these areas are preferred.
- Candidates should have had substantial political science undergraduate course work.

Compensation:

- This is a volunteer nonpaying position, applicants are strongly encouraged to seek out and apply for grants from their school or other sources.

Application:

- The title of the position MUST appear in the first line of the envelope if mailing or subject line if emailing.
- Please send resume and cover letter explaining your interest in this position and qualifications for it, to: Eric Lesh - Fair Courts Project Internship -- esh@lambdalegal.org.

Internships are available throughout the year.

Lambda Legal is committed to further building and maintaining a staff that reflects the full range of LGBT, HIV and allied communities, and is an equal opportunity employer. People of color, transgender and gender-nonconforming people, women, people with abilities in multiple languages, immigrants, and people living with disabilities, including HIV, are encouraged to apply.

Internship opportunities available with the Chris Van Hollen for Senate Campaign

The Chris Van Hollen for Senate campaign is currently looking for interns and fellows from University of Maryland to join our team. This will be a great opportunity for students to become civically engaged, learn how a campaign works and master cutting-edge targeting and political data techniques as part of the most exciting campaign of the cycle.

The campaign is looking for bright, energetic individuals who want to learn the nuts and bolts of how a campaign works and help elect the next U.S. Senator from Maryland! Hours are flexible with a small requirement, and the campaign team is a lot of fun. No previous campaign experience necessary. When you walk out the door at the end of your internship you will know how to run a local field program, and have met a lot of new friends.

To apply for an internship or fellowship with the Van Hollen for Senate campaign, or to learn about volunteer opportunities, please fill out this form or email any questions to cvh.internship.info@gmail.com. The Van Hollen for Senate Campaign is an equal, opportunity employer.
