Greetings!

We hope you're having a spooktacular October! We're wishing you productive study sessions as midterms begin, and remember: you can always grab a seat in the WMST department and hit the books! Before you're too swamped with work, please consider applying to Triota, the WMST Honors Society; find the link below!

We have plenty of activities to share with you for the upcoming week, note today's "Making Interventions" conference and then check out the Weekend Plans and Mark your Calendars sections below.

Also, take a look at our Spotlight this week to learn about the study abroad experiences this semester of Women's Studies major Cosette Zacarias.

As always, check out the updates in the Careers section to find upcoming events at the Career Center, and to discover new job and internship opportunities that might be perfect for you! Note the October 22 deadline to apply for November on-campus interviews with a number of non-profit agencies as well as October application deadlines for several internships.

Inside this Issue:
- Today: "Making Interventions" Women's Studies Conference
- Weekend Plans
- Mark Your Calendars!
- Spotlight: Cosette Zacarias Studying Abroad
- Apply for Triota Honors Society
- October is Disability Awareness Month
- Department of Women's Studies Fall Gathering
- Applications for the 2018-19 YP4 Fellowship
- Speak: Slam Poetry Collective
- Upcoming Career Center Events
- Careers4Terps
- Additional Internships and Jobs

Today: "Making Interventions" Women's Studies Conference

Friday, October 13

What do you make when you're making change? What does it look like? How does it work, what work does it do? With whom do you make it?
"Making Interventions" is the 3rd biennial Interventions symposium hosted by the Department of Women's Studies Graduate Student Association. The one-day conference hosts presentations and panels, workshops and performances from scholars/artists/makers, inviting attendees to engage with collaborative, creative, and interdisciplinary feminist scholarship in a vibrant array of forms. The event frames interventions as a means of learning and teaching across disciplinary and institutional boundaries among students, colleagues, and communities within and outside the University.

Speakers include

- Ashley Miner, a member of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina who is a community based visual artist, folklorist and storyteller.
- Jaamil Olawale Kosoko, a Nigerian-American curator, poet, and performance artist
- Katy Pyle, a lesbian choreographer and creator of performance whose works explore her own conflicted and complicit relationships to the cis hetero patriarchal form of ballet
- Kris Grey, a New York City based gender-queer artist whose cultural work includes curatorial projects, performance writing, and studio production

LOCATION: Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center
TIME: Friday, October 13 -- Events run from 8:30am-7:30pm. For a complete schedule, see https://makinginterventions.splashthat.com/

RSVPs are now closed but seating will be available on a first-come first-serve basis.

---

Weekend Plans

Utopia Film Festival
October 13-15

Now in its 13th year, Utopia presents documentaries, feature films, shorts and animation which creatively explore the personal, social, political, cultural and environmental issues which challenge humanity's never-ending quest for a better world.

Find out more information, including films, schedule, and ticketing details, here.
Freedmen's Bureau Papers Transcribe-a-thon
Friday, October 13

Join the Michelle Smith Collaboratory and the African American History, Culture and Digital Humanities (AADHum) Initiative in the College of Arts and Humanities (ARHU), in conjunction with the National Museum of African American History and Culture (NMAAHC), for a day of transcribing and dialogue about the Freedmen's Bureau papers and their important role in helping illuminate the road from slavery to freedom in the African American experience.

Participate online or in-person as we work to transcribe documents from the NMAAHC Freedmen's Bureau Papers. Wi-fi access will be available to non-UMD participants.

Cost: Free
Register online: go.umd.edu/AADHumFreedmenTranscribe
Contact: AADHUM, Michelle Smith Collaboratory 301-405-3183 quint@umd.edu

LOCATION: Art-Sociology Building, Michelle Smith Collaboratory, Room 4213
TIME: Friday, October 13, 2017 11:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Action for Food Justice: Join the Grocery Walk
Saturday, October 14

Join the Grocery Walk on Saturday, October 14. In cities across the country there are neighborhoods with little to no access to grocery stores. Such neighborhoods exist in SE Washington, D.C. We're walking to downtown Anacostia from the only grocery store in Ward 8-- which is a 45 minute walk away. East of the River deserves more.

We envision a city that makes deep, comprehensive investments in healthy food for all. Join us at this action for food justice-- because everyone should have access to fresh, healthy, affordable food.

10 AM - Gather in the shopping center parking lot near Giant (1535 Alabama Ave SE). Walk begins at 10:15.
11:00 AM - End walk at 2424 Martin Luther King Jr. Ave for a Rally and Resource Fair.

The Grocery Walk is brought to you by DC Greens in partnership with Bread for the City, BYP 100 DC, Capital Area Food Bank, DC Central Kitchen, DC Hunger Solutions, and Voices for Healthy Kids.

Screening of Alice's Ordinary People
Saturday, October 14

The documentary Alice's Ordinary People focuses on Alice Tregay, an unsung hero of the Civil Rights Movement. Filmmaker Craig Dudnick will give an introduction, speaking of the circumstances in Chicago which drew Tregay to the movement, and how he came to make the film. Tregay's remarkable story as an activist spans fifty years and is about ordinary people effecting extraordinary change for human rights. There will be time for Q&A and a discussion with the filmmaker following the screening.

Registration is required; seats are limited. Sign up here.

Location: Silver Spring Public Library, 900 Wayne Ave, Silver Spring, Maryland
TIME: Saturday, October 14, 6:30 pm

Black Girl Magic Yoga and Discussion
Sunday October 15th

Black Girl Magic is a Yin OR Slow Vinyasa Flow Yoga experience celebrating the beauty and strength of Black women. The class serves as a safe space for Black women to pursue health and wellness together with all other groups of people dedicated to uplifting black women. Yes, you can come to class if you are male, transgender, white, black, etc." As long as you are willing to listen to and uplift black women you are welcome to come." Created by and for Black women, this yoga class transcends to our inhale discussions once a month which will focus on the state of Black women in America and provide an avenue for women to have fellowship and support for one another. Join us for the inspirational music of Black female artists and the camaraderie of like minded individuals.

Every Sunday from October 15th 2017- June 3rd 2018
$18 for a single session ($15 for students)

For more information go to http://www.kheperawellness.com/register/
Or contact: (770) 605-2203 or kheperawellness@gmail.com

LOCATION: Khepera Wellness Group inside The Dance Institute of Washington,
3400 14th St. NW, Washington, DC, 20010
TIME: Sunday, October 15th 2017- June 3rd 2018, 9:30-11am

---

Mark Your Calendars!

Our People, Connecting Anti-Rape and Anti-Racism Work
Monday, October 16

Oppressions often divide us, but understanding and linking oppressions can help us to see one another as more fully human and establish relationships as allies. Neil Irvin, Executive Director of Men Can Stop Rape, will discuss the historical link between racism and sexual assault, the challenges to connecting anti-rape and anti-racism work, and the promise of creating a collective commitment to preventing racism and gender-based violence through non-violent communication. Neil will also discuss the concept of healthy masculinity as a key to promoting prosocial norms and undoing (and unlearning) the cultures of racism and sexual violence.

Please RSVP at OurPeopleUMD2 to let us know you plan to join us. And please spread the word!

Light refreshments will be served.

For a more detailed description of Our People, including facilitator bios, click here.

LOCATION: Stamp Student Union, Charles Carroll Room
TIME: Monday, October 16, 4:00-6:00 pm, but RSVP now!

Carrie Mae Weems: Kitchen Table Series
Tuesday, October 17

Carrie Mae Weems’s Kitchen Table Series consists of 20 staged photographs depicting the artist and others seated at a table. Endowed with a keen sense of how to transform her body into an expressive tool, Weems used the photographs to tell the story of a women’s life as seen through the intimate space of the kitchen—the traditional sphere of women and a site of sanctuary, creation, shared experiences, and emotional honesty. In this lecture held in conjunction with the installation of Kitchen Table Series in the East Building of National Gallery of Art and the performance Grace Notes: Reflections for Now at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, Weems shares the experience of creating this seminal body of work.

A book signing of Carrie Mae Weems: Kitchen Table Series follows.

LOCATION: National Gallery of Art, 6th & Constitution Ave NW, Washington, DC
TIME: Tuesday, October 17, 12:00pm

Visit the National Gallery of Art website for more information.

Fake News & Alternative Facts
Tuesday, October 17

The Interdisciplinary Dialogue Series, hosted by University Libraries, features panel discussions on important topics by scholars from various disciplines at the University of Maryland. This forum will focus on topics relating to fake news and alternative facts, featuring a panel of speakers from The Washington Examiner, the Department of Communication, the Department of Government & Politics, and more.

Cost: Free! Lunch will be provided. The program will begin promptly at 12:00. Please plan to arrive 10-15 minutes early to get your lunch and get settled.

See: https://www.lib.umd.edu/rc/interdisciplinary-dialogue
Contact: Lily Griner griner@umd.edu

LOCATION: McKeldin Library, Room 6137
TIME: Tuesday, October 17, 2017 12:00 - 2:00 pm

Purple Light Night
Tuesday, October 17

Join CARE to Stop Violence and guests as we remember and honor victims and survivors of relationship violence during Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Hear from professionals in the field as well as speakers, artists, and performers who will raise awareness, honor those who have been impacted, and call on us to unite to prevent future violence. There will be an opportunity to donate to CARE’s Victim Assistance Fund during the program.

Contact: 301-314-2222 and uhc-care@umd.edu
http://www.health.umd.edu/care
Silencing Speech, Diminishing Discourse: Threats to Democracy on Campus and Beyond

As part of the Exploring Social Justice event series, Catherine Ross, professor of law at George Washington University, will analyze contemporary controversies over expression on college campuses and beyond through the lens of First Amendment doctrine, discussing lessons in censorship learned from kindergarten through high school, critical distinctions among censors and speakers on college campuses, and the importance of active citizenship to pluralist democracy.

Tips for Maximizing the Time in Your Life

Description: Take control of the way you spend your 168 hours each week!
Contact: 301-314-7693 and http://www.counseling.umd.edu/LAS/

Student Panel: Supporting #TransTerps

The first event of the #TransTerps campaign is a student panel where you can hear from students on their experience being trans, gender non-conforming, or nonbinary on this campus. RSVP now before registration fills up! Lunch will be provided.

RSVP here!

If you are a student of trans/non-binary experience and are interested in being on the panel, please e-mail Sika Wheeler at sika@umd.edu.

Youth Justice Action Month: Girls' Justice Reception
The Campaign for Youth Justice and Rights4Girls would like to cordially invite you to our Girls’ Justice Reception, an occasion to socialize with juvenile justice advocates and learn more about girls in the justice system.

There will be food, drinks, and various opportunities to get educated on girls’ pathways into the justice system and how the practice of putting girls in the adult system is detrimental. This event will be held in celebration of Youth Justice Action Month, a month during which people across the country organize events that raise awareness, strengthen coalitions, build campaigns, and encourage action to keep children out of the adult criminal justice system.

LOCATION: Campaign for Youth Justice, 1220 L Street Northwest, Suite 605, Washington, DC
TIME: Thursday, October 19, 3:00 - 5:00pm

Untold Stories: The Immigrant Experience
Thursday, October 19

Often times immigrants feel forced to remain silent in order to assimilate to the greater American identity. We will be challenging this notion by creating a platform in which their stories can be openly heard and celebrated. In a time where there is more stigma surrounding immigration than ever, we must center these stories and experiences. Join us for a night of reflection and appreciation as we listen to the untold stories of people who are connected to the immigrant experience. We will be featuring poetry, stories, and art from immigrants, children of immigrants, and people who feel deeply connected to the immigrant experience.

See: https://www.facebook.com/events/1442566459195508/
Contact: Muslim Alliance for Social Change
mascumd@gmail.com

LOCATION: Adele H. Stamp Student Union, Hoff Theater
TIME: Thursday, October 19, 6:00 - 8:00 pm

https://www.facebook.com/events/1442566459195508/

art + justice with Amber Robles-Gordon
Friday, October 20

art + justice is a platform for adults to explore the intersection of tactile art-making, thoughtful reflection, and personal enrichment. Through artist-led guided projects audiences unlock their creative potential within themselves, while also enjoying the opportunity to exchange ideas with community towards social justice. art + justice is a hands-on maker space that stimulates creative agency, while providing the mental and emotional space to work through complicated issues around race, gender, identity, and social cohesion.

https://www.facebook.com/events/1442566459195508/
Artist + Art Project: Washington, DC textile and mixed media artist, Amber Robles-Gordon leads a beginner’s-level art lesson creating “Talking Sticks” - a symbol used in many indigenous cultures to designate the authority to speak within a group setting. This symbolic art-making lesson reflects on the long history of community activism with the African American community and beyond and encourages dialogue while providing space for personal reflection and introspection.

LOCATION: Heritage Hall, National Museum of African American History and Culture
TIME: October 20, 2017, 7:30-9:50pm

Tickets are $40 for non-members, $30 for members, and $20 for students. They can be purchased here.

Reel Affirmations Film Festival

October 19-22

This is Washington DC’s International LGBTQ Film Festival and Monthly Film Series. The Annual film festival, from 10/19-10/22 at the Gala Hispanic Theater, brings several days of new and exciting international, documentary, short and feature films from all over the world to Washington as well as panel discussions, filmmaker Q&A and celebrations.

Check out this event and find line up and ticket information here.

Muslims and The Holocaust: Reconciliation and Hope

Tuesday, October 24

Bahá’í Chair for World Peace Lecture
In the world of terrorism and extremism, the image of Jewish, Christian, and Muslim relations has been portrayed as volatile and irreconcilable. However, the many positive and lost stories of reconciliation, rescue, and religious roots have been buried by extremist agendas and media. How is the Holocaust connected to Muslims? Why is this significant in creating a bridge of understanding between Jews and Muslims? How can we acknowledge one another’s narratives of suffering at different times in history? Dr. Afridi will shed light on these aspects at a challenging time for religious dialogue and healing. She will discuss the common and shared biblical stories of Jews, Christians, and Muslims; how these relate to the stories of rescue during the Holocaust; and innovative interfaith projects that have brought these traditions together.

Cost: Free
Contact: (301) 314-7714 and BCWP@umd.edu
The Phillips Collection:
ARTISTS OF CONSCIENCE
Saturday, November 4

The University of Maryland and The Phillips Collection forum, "Artists of Conscience," focuses on the increasingly important role artists are playing in political and social discourse today. Events include a keynote lecture by artist Sanford Biggers; a poetry reading by Fatimah Asghar, creator of the web series Brown Girl; and one-on-one conversations between the artists and University of Maryland scholars Curlee Holton, Director of the David C. Driskell Center, and Susan Dwyer, Executive Director of the Honors College.

LOCATION: The Phillips Collection, 1600 21st St NW, Washington, DC 20009
TIME: Saturday, November 4, 2:00-5:00 pm

Reservations are recommended. Tickets cost $12 but are free to students.

There will be a shuttle to take students from campus to the Phillips at no charge; it will leave from the Stamp Union at 1:00 pm.

---

Spotlight: Cosette Zacarias Studying Abroad in Amsterdam

I am currently studying abroad at Amsterdam University College, and it's been a great experience so far! School-wise, I'm enjoying the small class sizes, and my favorite class is Race, Class, Gender Intersectionality (of course). The class is structured around black feminist discourse, and it has been interesting learning about transnational black feminism from Brazil and the Netherlands, for example. In my class we also discuss how the notion of Europe as "progressive" and "tolerant" makes it difficult to address real issues of Dutch racism and discrimination.
Highlights of my experience so far have been: seeing the crooked canal houses, eating Dutch stroopwafels, visiting the Gordon Parks photography exhibit at Foam museum, and going to Europe's largest flea market! (IJ-Hallen) I'm looking forward to getting to know the city's history better!

Apply for Triota, the Women's Studies Honor Society:

The purpose of this organization is to encourage and support scholarship and excellence. Iota Iota Iota is named for the ancient goddesses Inanna, Ishtar, and Isis. We are home Beta Beta Chapter of this organization.

If you are a student who has taken at least one Women's Studies or LGBT Course with GPA of at least 3.0 in women studies or LGBT courses and have a minimum 2.75 cumulative GPA, you are invited to join the Beta Beta Chapter of Iota Iota Iota (Triota). If you are interested in membership, please fill out the application online, along with a copy of your most recent unofficial transcript, semester schedule, and a short essay (250-500 words) about why you want to join Triota or what you like about WMST or LGBT courses.

Applications due November 1st; apply here.

October is Disability Awareness Month
Sponsored by the President's Commission on Disability Issues

Using ELMS Accessibility Tools
Friday, October 13, 10 am - 12 pm
Edward St John Bldg., Room 1103
Learn how to use several powerful tools available within ELMS to ensure the accessibility of course content. Register at https://go.umd.edu/ELMSaccessibility

RadAccess Workshop
Monday, October 16, 2-4 pm
McKeldin Library, Special Events Room 6137
Join this interactive workshop which offers the basics of ableism and what radical access and disability justice means. This workshop is meant for people in solidarity with disability justice movements.

Yoga for Peace: honoring ourselves and our community
Tuesday, October 17, 12-1 pm
Behind University Chapel (inside Chapel if inclement weather)
Join us for a moment of silence, meditation and gentle yoga for peace and compassion toward ourselves and our community.

For sign language interpretation for any of the Disability Awareness events, please contact the ADS Deaf and Hard of Hearing Services Coordinator, Cassandra Lytle at 301.314.7209 or dhhs@umd.edu.
For more information or to request additional accommodations, please contact ADS AT Lab Coordinator Dan Newsome at: 302.314.7958 or wdn@umd.edu

Contact pcdi@umd.edu if you have any questions about these events.

---

Department of Women's Studies Fall Gathering
Friday, October 20

We are delighted to invite you to the Department of Women's Studies Fall Gathering! Join us for informal conversation, friendly socializing, and food as we welcome new and returning students, faculty, and affiliate faculty members to the Women's Studies community at UMD.

LOCATION: 2101 Woods Hall (WMST Conference Room)
TIME: Friday, October 20, 3:00-5:00pm

---

Applications for the 2018-2019 YP4 Fellowship are now OPEN!

The Young People For (YP4) Fellowship is a yearlong leadership development program for young people committed to creating positive social change in their communities. Fellows represent diverse backgrounds, beliefs, and approaches to social change, and they are working on many different progressive issues on campuses and in communities across the country.
The Fellowship year runs from May 1st to the last day in April and includes:

- The Blueprint for Social Justice
- Regional Training
- Fem/Mentorship
- The National Summit
- Civic Engagement Opportunities
- Lifelong Opportunities

Priority Application Deadline: December 31, 2017
Final Application Deadline: January 31, 2017

More details about the YP4 Fellowship can be found here
SPEAK
umd's student-run poetry collective

Are you interested in poetry and spoken word, or want to try it out?

JOIN SPEAK!
ANYONE AND EVERYONE WELCOME,
NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY!

Meets Wednesdays at 8pm
In Symons O215
Career Corner

ARHU Career Events & Opportunities via Kate Juhl

Upcoming Events
A full listing of career events can always be found at www.Careers.umd.edu. ARHU students can schedule appointments with the University Career Center @ ARHU through Careers4Terps (www.Careers.umd.edu). Walk-in hours are also held on Mondays from 1:30-3:30 pm and Thursdays from 9:30-11:30 am in 1118 Francis Scott Key Hall. To contact Kate Juhl, Career Center Program Director for the College of Arts & Humanities, email kjuhl@umd.edu.

Human Resources Industry Meetup:
Friday October 13, 12:00-2:00pm | 3100 Hornbake Library South Wing
Come to a relaxed, informal opportunity to meet and greet with organizations seeking to connect with and hire University of Maryland students interested in careers in human resources. Each company will give a 3-5 minute overview and then be seated at tables to have conversations with students over light refreshments for the remainder of event.

Cultivating Careers Competencies: Writing Compelling Cover Letters
Wednesday, October 18, 4:00-5:30pm | 3100 Hornbake Library South Wing
In addition to your well developed resume, it is also important to craft a cover letter to complement your application materials. In this workshop led by the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, students will learn about the importance of cover letters, how to speak the company's mission and vision, and how to best articulate their experiences in an engaging and meaningful way.

Careers in Science Meets Business Panel
Thursday, October 19, 4:30-5:30pm | 3100 Hornbake Library South Wing
Interested in how science plays out in the business world? Take advantage of this opportunity to learn from and network directly with professionals like yours that have found a career where science meets the business world. Gain inside knowledge by learning what skills employers are seeking and how to differentiate yourself from the competition.

2017 Geographical Sciences Career & Internship Fair
Friday, October 20, 9:30-12:30pm | 1158 Lefrak Hall
The Geographical Sciences Advising Office, in cooperation with the University Career Center & The President's Promise, sponsors a semi-annual career and internship fair specific to Geography, Geographic Information Systems, and Environmental Science and Policy students. Public, private, and non-profit employers attend to seek out potential interns and employees. All majors welcomed.

On-Campus Interviewing: Non-Profits-- APPLY BY OCTOBER 22
Wednesday, November 15 & Thursday, November 16
Non profits seeking spring 2018 interns will take over the University Career Center to conduct interviews with UMD students interested in their internships. Visit the website to see a list of participating non-profits. To apply, click the job title, and you will be asked to log in with your UMD Directory ID and password. You may apply to as many internships that are of interest to you. In order to be considered for an interview, you must apply through Careers4Terps by Sunday, October 22 at 11:59pm. If selected for an interview, you will sign up for an interview timeslot beginning Tuesday, October 31 in Careers4Terps under the "On-Campus Interviews (OCI) tab.
Career Shuttle: Mary's Center
Friday, October 27 9:00am- 1:00pm | 3100 Hornbake Library South Wing
Join us on a Career Shuttle site visit to the Mary's Center in Washington, DC! The career shuttle is for students who are interested in working towards healthcare access for all, especially minority populations in a supportive clinical setting. All undergraduate and graduate majors are welcome, but students majoring in family science, psychology, community health, and public health may be particularly interested.

Career4Terps Opportunities
Thousands of internships as well as part-time and full-time jobs (including the few listed below) can be found by logging into Careers4Terps at www.Careers.umd.edu. Need help accessing your account? Stop by the University Career Center (3100 Hornbake Library, South Wing) anytime Monday-Friday from 10:00 am- 4:00 pm (no appointment needed) for help with Careers4Terps.

The Food Research and Action Center

Position Type:
Internship (Fall or Spring Part-Time), Winter/January Term Internship
ID#: 161417
Preferred Class: Sophomore, Junior, Senior, Masters Candidate
Preferred Majors: All Majors
Job Function: Education/Teaching, Research, Social Services, Other
Location: Baltimore, MD
Duration: 10 weeks
Hours Per Week: 20-25
Compensation: Unpaid
Description: Maryland Hunger Solutions, an initiative of the Food Research and Action Center, seeks a highly motivated and skilled individual to join Maryland Hunger Solutions as an Advocacy intern. Through advocacy, research, coalition-building, outreach, technical assistance, public education and program monitoring, the intern will work with MDHS staff to protect and improve federal, state and local nutrition programs in the state of Maryland. This internship will be located in Baltimore, Maryland with some travel around the state as required.

FRAC is the leading national nonprofit organization working to improve and implement effective public policies and public-private partnerships to eradicate hunger and undernutrition in the United States. FRAC engages in research, technical assistance, information dissemination, policy analysis and advocacy, coalition-building, and an array of communications strategies. Formed in 2007, Maryland Hunger Solutions (MDHS) is the leading Maryland non-profit working to reduce hunger and improve nutrition in the State of Maryland by improving participation and benefits in public nutrition and related programs. MDHS's focus is on using federal programs (e.g., food stamps, called the Food Supplement Program in Maryland, school breakfast and lunch, summer and afterschool nutrition programs, WIC and other programs) to reduce hunger and its adverse effects; to improve economic security, health and nutrition; and to strengthen community institutions.

This internship may be done either to meet course /program requirements or as a volunteer. If this is done on a volunteer basis, FRAC will reimburse commuting expenses up to $500.

Qualifications

- Minimum of 2 years college education
- Good oral and written communication skills
- Ability to present and speak in public
- Willingness to work varied hours
- Good organizational skills
• Self-starter, ability to work independently
• Excellent interpersonal skills; team orientation
• Evidence of commitment to social justice; experience with SNAP/food stamp program a plus
• Experience with Microsoft Office Suite products with ability to use Excel for data collection
• Conversant in Spanish, a plus
• Ability to travel around the state for meetings and events (must have own transportation; mileage will be reimbursed)

The start and end dates of the internship are flexible; however, the ideal candidate will be available for a 10-week internship. Interns are expected to work at least 20 - 25 hours per week.

To Apply
Please email cover letter and resume, along with 2 references to: employment@mdhungersolutions.org. Please include "Advocacy Intern - MDHS" in subject line. FRAC is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer. FRAC is firmly committed to a policy against discrimination based on age, sex, race, religious creed, sexual orientation, disability or ethnic or national origin.

Application deadline: October 26, 2017

Safe Shores- DC
Position Type: Entry level (New Graduates), Experienced Hire (Alumni)
ID#: 164905
Preferred Class: masters Candidate, Recent Grad, Alumnus/a
Preferred Majors: Behavioral and Social Sciences, Public health
Job Function: Education/Teaching, Social Services
Location: Washington, DC
Duration: Indefinite
Hours Per Week: 40
Compensation: Starting Salary 50k
Description: Safe Shores- The D.C. Children's Advocacy Center is an organization striving for excellence as a service provider and as a workplace. Safe Shores values respect, honesty, trustworthiness, professionalism, growth and learning, taking care to give care, innovation, teamwork, and collaboration. Safe Shores is seeking a highly capable, experienced, personable and resourceful professional with a passion for Safe Shores' mission and the proven ability to support their prevention and outreach efforts.
This individual will be instrumental in implementing, evaluating, and growing the Prevention and Outreach Program. The program takes a public health approach and is rooted in the belief that the prevention of child abuse is an adult responsibility. Goals of the Prevention and Outreach Program include raising awareness of the prevalence and impact of child abuse; educating the community about the steps to prevent, recognize and react responsibly to child abuse; and engaging people to take action to protect children. This position requires participating in the on-call rotation for after hours and weekend victim services support. This position is a mandated reporter for child abuse and neglect.
Primary Areas of Responsibility:
• Deliver education and prevention programs to community members
• Identify and assess prevention programs/curriculum that promote child safety and wellness
• Support community-wide prevention and outreach efforts with key stakeholders/organizations
• Engage community agencies and youth serving organizations around the issue of child sexual abuse prevention in order to increase their training participation and prevention behaviors
• Market training opportunities and prevention materials within the DC community
• Assist with the design and creation of all promotional and prevention materials and media campaigns
• Recruit, train, and supervise Safe Shores' Authorized Facilitators, interns, and volunteers
• Establish program evaluation tools/ procedures and regularly analyze training data

Qualifications:

• Ability to successfully pass Child Protection Registry clearance and criminal background check
• Bachelor's Degree from an accredited college/ university, preferably in the fields of social work, psychology, or human development AND a minimum of three years of experience working in social services, victim advocacy, or crisis counseling, OR:
• Master's Degree from an accredited college/ university, preferably in the field of social work or related disciplines AND a minimum of one year of experience working in social services, victim advocacy, or crisis counseling
• Bilingual (English and Spanish) with experience successfully and empathetically connecting with individuals from diverse Spanish speaking countries around sensitive issues such as abuse.
• Experience and comfort teaching adults, leading groups, and public speaking
• Demonstrated understanding of community level prevention interventions, including the development of trainings, evaluation, and/or implementation
• Exceptional organization, planning, interpersonal and communication skills
• Ability to sit, to regularly move/ lift up to 12 pounds, to occasionally move/ lift up to 30 pounds
• Must be able to travel and transport training materials throughout the Washington metropolitan area, including a valid driver's license and access to a car that is serviceable for regular, local travel.

Application Deadline: November 3, 2017

University of Maryland - Health Professions Advising office
Position Type: Clinical Shadowing Opportunity
ID#: 158556
Preferred Class: Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior, Recent Grad (up to 1 year out), Alumnus/a (beyond 1 year out)
Job Function: Healthcare
Location: Cambridge, MD
Hours Per Week: 25-40
Compensation: Unpaid
Description: Clinical shadowing to be arranged between student and provider.
Please contact docnewmier@rosehillfp or call 410-228-1325 for more information.

Application Deadline: November 20, 2017

DC Volunteer Lawyers Project
Position Type: Internship (Fall or Spring Part-Time)
ID#: 164780
Preferred Class: Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior, Recent Grad (up to 1 year out)
Preferred Majors: All Majors
Job Function: Administrative/Support Services, Social Services
Location: Washington, DC
Duration: Semester long
Hours Per Week: 10-20
Compensation: Unpaid

Description: The DC Volunteers Lawyers Project (DCVLP) is searching for a current college student or recent graduate to join our dedicated staff of lawyers and administrators for a full or part-time internship in Washington, DC. If you are interested in working at an established legal non-profit, this could be the internship for you! In this role, you'll have the opportunity to work directly with lawyers and contribute to helping low-income DC residents with their legal needs. DC Volunteer Lawyers Project creates, supports, and utilizes a network of volunteer lawyers to provide high-quality, pro bono legal services to low-income individuals in the District of Columbia who are domestic violence victims, at-risk children, or have other urgent family law needs. Please see our website (www.dcvlp.org) for more information on our organization and the services we provide. We provide the training which may include an an overview of our services for domestic violence victims and at-risk children, a tour of DC Superior Court, a primer on court procedures and the basics on domestic violence and child advocacy legal issues.

Internship Responsibilities:
- Attending court hearings at the D.C. Superior Court, and providing legal and administrative support to the supervising and volunteer attorneys.
- Assisting in the case administration of Guardian ad Litem and Domestic Violence matters, including court document management.
- Assisting with our annual benefit, Voices Against Violence, held in the spring
- Supporting the operation of our weekly walk-in domestic violence resource clinic
- Any additional projects as assigned

This internship will be un-paid; however DCVLP may be able to assist you in obtaining academic credit if provided with the required documents.

Spanish-speakers and those with an interest in law school are strongly encouraged to apply.

If you are interested in applying for this exciting opportunity, please email your cover letter and resume by November 13th to Jaclyn Lahr at jlahr@dcvlp.org.

Qualifications/Requirements:
- Minimum commitment of 10 - 15 hours per week
- Must be at least 18 years old
- Availability to travel to and from DCVLP’s office and the DC Superior Court
- Keen attention to detail and strong organizational, computer, and writing skills
- Positive attitude and ability to deal with sensitive issues

Application deadline: November 29, 2017
Freedom House. Matters on which support is provided vary, but include program development, implementation, reporting, and financial management, and day to day operational matters. The position is based in Washington, DC, and will report to International Programs Executives.

PRINCIPLE DUTIES, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND EXPECTATIONS:
Award implementation - support supervisors in their work managing/overseeing donor awards, including conducting research on topics related to awards/programs, drafting reports, circulating information to Washington-based staff about upcoming external programs/events, and from time to time attending and reporting on these programs.
Proposal development - support supervisors in their work developing proposals for new donor funding, including conducting research, drafting proposal sections, and coordinating proposal development.
Budget management and monitoring - support supervisors in ensuring that all programs maintain and regularly update budget monitors/trackers, and in analyzing program teams' spending. Create and maintain basic Excel format budgets.
Administrative support - provide all manner of administrative support including support with scheduling, travel arrangements, file maintenance, e-mail and document drafting and circulation, purchase of office supplies, and expense reporting; schedule and arrange meetings and events, and liaise with internal and external contacts appropriately and under supervision; maintain files for easy access and retrieval; and assist with photocopying, scanning, faxing, filing, collating and distributing documents.

Qualifications:
Education: Bachelors' degree in political science, international relations, or related field.
Experience: Knowledge of and commitment to the cause of advancing human rights and democracy
Six months of relevant experience in a professional office setting; experience in the area of democracy, human rights, and governance strongly preferred
Basic budget and financial management experience
Basic understanding of rules and regulations governing USG grants
Skills and Competencies:
Strong ability to communicate effectively in English, both verbally and in writing
Strong ability to develop, analyze, and manage program budgets; facility in financial management
Knowledge of international human rights principles and mechanisms, and understanding of international democracy promotion. Astute political judgment and strategic thinking; excellent judgment in problem-solving and decision-making. Proven ability to multitask and manage one's time effectively to meet competing deadlines and priorities. Ability to conduct research and apply strong analytical skills. Proficiency in MS Office Suite, strong database skills, and ability to type at least 40 words per minute. Excellent interpersonal skills, ability to persuade and facilitate cooperation between people with divergent views and to collaborate with others and successfully work as an effective team member. Ability to maintain the highest degree of confidentiality regarding all aspects of work. Ability to represent Freedom House professionally in conduct and personal appearance. Excellent attention to detail and ability to consistently produce timely and error-free work under tight deadlines. Excellent timekeeping and attendance, and ability to work flexible schedule and be available outside of normal business hours for emergency work purposes
Ability to adhere to and work within strict guidelines and procedures
Attributes and Characteristics: Exhibit strong and sustained commitment to the mission of Freedom House. Show good stewardship in the use of Freedom House resources. Exhibit excellent, professional conduct at all times, and pleasant demeanor, positive attitude, and ethical conduct. Consistently use good judgment when dealing with all contacts and constituents. Exhibit high work standards, adherence to procedures, and responsibility for assigned tasks. Demonstrate the desire for excellence to inspire others to attain professional excellence. Assess own strengths and weaknesses; pursue training and development opportunities; strive to continuously build knowledge and skills. Work as an effective team member and successfully balance responsibilities. Comply with all policies and procedures

Application deadline: November 30, 2017
National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws

Position Type: Internship (Fall or Spring Part-Time)
ID#: 165097
Job Function: Social Services
Location: Washington, DC
Duration: One semester
Hours Per Week: 16-32
Compensation: Unpaid

Description: Since its founding in 1970, NORML has provided a voice in the public policy debate for those Americans who oppose marijuana prohibition and favor an end to the practice of arresting marijuana smokers. A nonprofit public-interest advocacy group, NORML represents the interests of the tens of millions of Americans who smoke marijuana responsibly. During the 1970s, NORML led the successful efforts to decriminalize minor marijuana offenses in 11 states and significantly lower marijuana penalties in all others. Today NORML continues to lead the fight to reform state and federal marijuana laws, whether by voter initiative or through the elected legislatures. NORML serves as an informational resource to the national media on marijuana-related stories, providing a perspective to offset the anti-marijuana propaganda from the government; lobbies state and federal legislators in support of reform legislation; publishes a regular newsletter; hosts, along with the NORML Foundation, an informative web site and an annual conference; and serves as the umbrella group for a national network of citizen-activists committed to ending marijuana prohibition and legalizing marijuana.

Application Deadline: December 22, 2017

National Research Center for Women & Families

Position Type: Internship (Fall or Spring Part-Time)
ID#: 164691
Preferred Class: Junior, Senior, Masters Candidate, Recent Grad (up to 1 year out)
Preferred Majors: Agriculture and Natural Resources/Environmental Health, Arts and Humanities, Behavioral and Social Sciences, Behavioral and Social Sciences/Psychology, Computer, Mathematical, and Natural Sciences/Biological Sciences, Computer, Mathematical, and Natural Sciences/Chemistry & Biochemistry, Public Health, Public Policy
Job Function: Administrative/Support Services, Communication, Healthcare, Research
Location: Washington, DC
Duration: 3 month minimum
Hours Per Week: 24
Compensation: Unpaid

Description: Spring Internships are available for undergraduate or graduate students or recent graduates who are available at least 24 hours/wk for at least 3 months. Through these internship opportunities, you will learn first-hand about the Washington policy scene by gaining hands-on experience in several possible areas, including government relations/public policy development, communications/media relations, and/or non-profit fundraising/development. We are a non-profit think tank that makes a difference in the lives of millions of adults and children. We work closely with the national and international media to get our message out to the public. We connect with policy makers and decision makers on a national level to change public policy. We work with independent researchers from around the country to bring fair, unbiased and non-corporate-funded information to the public about timely issues that matter to adults and children, such as obesity, the safety and affordability of medical products and treatments, sexual assault, and so much more.
Qualifications: Unspecified

Application deadline: December 26, 2017
Additional Internships and Jobs

UNchained At Last: Advocacy Interns

Unchained At Last, the organization that started and now leads the growing national movement to end child marriage in America, seeks Advocacy Interns to join the movement. This opportunity includes:

- Communicating directly with legislators and their staffers;
- Testifying before legislative committees;
- Researching and submitting written testimony to legislative bodies;
- Identifying and networking with allies;
- Building grassroots support;
- Helping to plan political protests and similar events

Requirements:

- Located in Florida, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey or Pennsylvania;
- Have excellent written and oral communication skills;
- Are ridiculously organized and detail oriented;
- Feel passionately about ending child marriage in America

To be considered for this position, submit your application and resume here.

To learn more, click here.

Teach for America

Are you interested in challenging yourself in an impact-driven career? Putting your talents to work to disrupt inequality and create opportunity? Joining a powerful network of more than 50,000 leaders from all backgrounds and sectors?

By joining Teach for America, you will become part of a network of leaders shaping the political, economic, and social future of our country. Check out some of the inspiring ways alumni are leading across education, business, policy, law, medicine, and more. How will you lead? Apply to the 2018 corps today.

Application Deadline: October 18

NARAL Pro-Choice America: Community Outreach and Communications Intern

Position Type: Internship
Preferred Class: Unspecified
Preferred Major: Unspecified
Job Function: Community Outreach and Communications
Location: NARAL Pro-Choice Maryland; 8905 Fairview Rd, Suite 401; Silver Spring, Maryland
Duration: Fall 2017
Hours Per Week: 20-25
Compensation: Unpaid (travel stipend and class credit offered)

Description: NPCM is seeking a Community Outreach and Communications Intern to assist with community outreach and education, help with online outreach efforts, and learn the inner workings of a non-profit organization.

Qualifications:

- Possess strong interpersonal communication skills, including the ability to engage a diverse audience with comfort and confidence;
- Possess strong organizational/multi-tasking skills, attention to detail and have an ability to meet deadlines on time;
- Possess excellent writing, researching, and editing skills; be familiar with Microsoft Word, Publisher, Excel and social networking sites;
- Be a self-starter who is able to take initiative on individual projects;
- Possess ability to work well independently and in cooperative decision-making settings;
- Outgoing personality and willingness to work with volunteers;
- Support the full range of reproductive options for women including birth control, bearing healthy children, adoption, and safe, legal abortion;
- Spanish language skills preferred but not required;
- Experience living, working, or attending school in Maryland is preferred but not required.

Application Instructions: Send a cover letter and resume to Chelsea Yarborough at chelsea@prochoicemd.org. In your cover letter, please include proposed start and end dates and whether you are interested travel stipend only, or the travel stipend and class credit.

For more information, click here.

Application Deadline: Accepted on a rolling basis

National Museum of Women in the Arts Internship Opportunities

The internship program is specifically designed for students who have completed their sophomore year of undergraduate study (or higher) and recent graduates who have a minimum 3.0 cumulative grade point average.

Spring 2018 Internships include:

- Development Internship
- Digital Engagement Internship
- Education Internship
- Finance Internship
- Library & Research Center Internship
- Membership Internship
- Public Programs Internship
- Publications & Communications/Marketing Internship
- Special Events/Development Internship

Applicants may apply for up to three internships per season. A separate electronic application is required for each position. Only applications submitted via our online form will be considered. To apply, submit an electronic application. All uploaded documents should be submitted in PDF format. Please note the electronic application is only available when there are open internships.
Refer to the website for more information and to access the electronic applications.

Spring application deadline: October 15th, 2017

Maryland General Assembly Legislative Intern Program

Position Type: Internship

Preferred Class: Unspecified, as long as you are enrolled in college

 Preferred Major: Unspecified

Job Function: To provide research and staff assistance to legislators

Location: 90 State Circle Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Duration: Spring 2017, 90 day session

Description: The General Assembly meets annually for a period of 90 calendar days, beginning the second Wednesday in January and continuing through early April. During the initial months, the busiest days are Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, with few or no committee hearings scheduled for Mondays or Fridays. Most legislators would like their interns to work the three days from Tuesday through Thursday or full-time. However, realizing the demands of college scheduling, the General Assembly accepts students who are able to work only two days per week. Since the legislature does not take any holidays during its 90-day session, interns are required to commit themselves to a weekly work schedule and to take no holidays or spring break. To apply, contact your college or university intern coordinator, career counselor, or department dean for an application.

Application Deadline: October 31, 2017

Community Crisis Services Paid Hotline Specialists

$11-$13 per hour

Description:
The Community Crisis Services Inc. is seeking paid hotline specialists for their overnight team. Crisis hotline work can be quite taxing, but is incredibly rewarding. Hotline specialists frequently take calls back to back, and many of these calls are with callers in significant emotional distress. You will take calls that frustrate or even upset you, but your warmth, empathy, and patience will be key to making callers feel supported and-if they are having thoughts of suicide-able to stay safe for now. On your shifts you will be part of a supportive team, and will have access around the clock to an on-call supervisor who can provide guidance in difficult hotline situations.

Responsibilities:
- Field a wealth of calls from different crisis hotlines including the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline and the Trevor Project, which serves LGBTQ Youth experiencing suicidal thoughts
- Assess service needs by applying active listening skills;
- Utilize agency resources to match callers with needed services and information - make appropriate referrals;
- Recognize and respond appropriately to persons in crisis - including callers with thoughts of suicide;
- Document call reports with an eye to detail and accuracy of information entry - utilizing a computer entry system to record each contact with clients.

Qualifications:
- Empathy, patience, and resilience
- Prior hotline and human service is extremely helpful but not required
- Excellent communication skills
-Computer Literacy
-Reliable Transportation
-ASIST certification preferred but not required

How To Apply:
Please email cover letter and resume to Deputy Director, Melanie Arroyo at melaniea@ccsimd.org to schedule an interview.

Girls Who Invest

Position Type: Summer Internship
ID#: 164224
Preferred Class: Freshman, Sophomore
Preferred Majors: All Majors
Job Function: Financial Services
Location: Notre Dame, Indiana & Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
Duration: Summer
Hours Per Week: Full time
Compensation: Hourly wage
Description: GWI's Summer Intensive Program inspires, educates, and supports young women so they become the next generation of leaders in asset management. GWI believes that asset management can be a stimulating, rewarding career, regardless of your current major. Our scholars graduate well-prepared to enter the industry across all asset classes—from public and private equity to fixed income, credit, hedge funds, and real estate.

2018 SUMMER INTENSIVE PROGRAM
- 4-week educational intensive in-residence at University of Pennsylvania or University of Notre Dame
- 6-week paid, hands-on internship experience at a leading asset management firm
- Girls Who Invest community helps scholars build meaningful careers in the industry

Over a four-week intensive period, respected business school professors teach our scholars core finance and investment concepts. Our scholars also have the opportunity to build meaningful relationships with some of the most influential leaders in the industry.

The Summer Intensive Program includes training in ethics from the CFA Institute, Bloomberg Terminal, presentation skills, and interview preparation. The curriculum also includes site visits with select asset management firms. Scholars who successfully complete the four-week educational program continue on to six-week paid summer internships secured by GWI with leading asset management firms. Scholars add the GWI credential to their resumes and have ongoing access to the robust GWI community.

GWI is seeking applications from current sophomores in college.
The GWI Summer Intensive Program will be held in two locations: University of Pennsylvania, May 27, 2018 - June 22, 2018, and University of Notre Dame, June 1, 2018 - June 29, 2018

Paid internships with industry leading asset management firms, secured by Girls Who Invest, will be available to successful graduates immediately following the program from approximately July 5, 2018 - August 15, 2018

Internships are made available only through the ten-week Summer Intensive Program
GWI's 2018 Summer Intensive Program is offered tuition/room/board-free to all qualified applicants.

2018 ONLINE LEARNERS PROGRAM
Through partnerships with Coursera and CFA Institute, online learners receive free access to a selection of the world’s best online courses in finance, management, and leadership. Online learners also benefit from Girls Who Invest’s engaging, ongoing community.
Please note: you will automatically be considered for the GWI Coursera Online Learners Program if you are not accepted into the GWI Summer Intensive Program.
GWI CFA ONLINE LEARNERS PROGRAM for 2018 college freshmen only. (Rising sophomores)
GWI offers college freshman the opportunity to participate in a self-study certificate program in partnership with the CFA Institute, the global association of investment professionals that sets the standard for professional excellence. Learn more about the CFA Investment Foundations Program. Completing the CFA Investment Foundations Program will provide you with a comprehensive overview of the asset management industry, offer you a noteworthy addition to your resume and strengthen your application next year should you choose to apply as a sophomore to the 2019 GWI Summer Intensive Program. The GWI CFA Online Learners Program will be available from June 1, 2018 - September 15, 2018.

GWI COURSERA ONLINE LEARNERS PROGRAM for 2018 college sophomores only. (Rising juniors)
GWI offers college sophomores the opportunity to participate in a private, curated online learning experience in partnership with Coursera, one of the world's largest online platforms for higher education.

GWI provides selected online learners access to Wharton's Business and Financial Modeling specialization which is a sequence of multiple courses along with 17 other carefully selected courses from top universities. Students who successfully complete the Business and Financial modeling program will receive a resume-worthy Certificate from Wharton and Coursera. The GWI online learning platform with Coursera will help broaden your skills and demonstrate to future employers your personal commitment to positioning yourself for success. The Coursera program will be available from 5/15/18- 5/15/19.

Posted by Girls Who Invest, Inc. 1166 Avenue of the Americas, 9th floor, NY, NY 10036

Qualifications: See description

Application deadline: December 1, 2017

Lisura Document Solutions

Position Type: Internship (Fall or Spring Part-Time)
ID#: 164334
Preferred Class: Junior, Senior
Preferred Majors: Arts and Humanities/Communication, Arts and Humanities/Creative Writing (GRAD), Business/Marketing
Job Function: Communication
Location: Crofton, MD
Duration: 135 hours
Hours Per Week: 4-8
Compensation: Unpaid

Description: Gain experience in communications and marketing using the skills you have and will learn to promote our business on the internet through blogs, social media, SEO and other forms of branding. Conduct research that will help to reach those who are looking for what Lisura Document Solutions offers by linking the business consumer to us through information—information used to identify and define marketing opportunities and problems; generate, refine, and evaluate marketing actions; monitor marketing performance; and improve understanding of the process. Interns research specific information required to address issues related to our products and solutions, directly communicating Lisura's value proposition to the local business community, then enter vital information into our CRM database and communicating any significant findings to management.

*Educational and mentoring plan: By the end of their internship you will have learned at minimum the following 5 skills:
1. CRM Skills - Businesses are also looking for experts in Customer Relationship Management (CRM) software, which serves as an essential tool for virtually any company. CRM software is used to organize and manage customers' various interactions with a company. CRM software helps bridge the gap between sales, marketing, and customer service. Lisura relies on a customized CRM system to deliver results.
2. Lead Nurturing - Companies are increasingly looking to lead nurturing as a vital sales solution. In the B2B world, most customer relationships today begin with a contact, then continue on with lead nurturing through the sales funnel. Lead nurturing is in super high demand, so employees with experience in this area should be sure to note it on their resume’s marketing skills list and LinkedIn profiles.

3. EMAIL Marketing - Email marketing isn't new, but it's still one of the most effective ways to market products and services. Newsletter signup boxes are commonplace on nearly all blogs, and brands are hungry for employees who can help them grow, retain, and delight email subscribers. They're looking for employees who understand email lead nurturing. If you can get practice with email marketing, wear this skill like a badge of honor.

4. Consumer Behaviorist - Brands realize that individuals make purchasing decisions based off of their feelings and emotional cues. It's why advertisements like the Budweiser Super Bowl puppy ads are so successful. As businesses seek to amp up the emotional storytelling and strengthen consumer bonds to brands, they want experts who understand consumer behavior and can help figure out what makes their key audiences tick.

5. Teamwork - With social media becoming a driving force in marketing teams supporting these programs are growing by leaps and bounds, so the marketer's ability to work in a team is paramount.

Qualifications: Strong interpersonal skills, works well with a team and is eager to learn. Excellent writing with the ability to think creatively and lend ideas. Strong research skills leading to logical conclusions.

Application deadline: December 22, 2017

Contact

Dr. Elsa Barkley Brown
Director of Undergraduate Studies
Women's Studies Department
2101 Woods Hall
University of Maryland, College Park, MD
20742
barkleyb@umd.edu 301-405-7710

Quote of the Week

"I had something I was trying to say and sometimes the message is an easy transmission and sometimes it’s a difficult one but I love the power of saying it so I’m gonna do it whether it's hard or easy."

-Faith Ringgold

Stay Connected